Hydraflow-Pumptech is Rexroth's newest Authorised Hydraulic Distributor in Ontario

Hydraulic solutions provider Hydraflow-Pumptech Fluid Power, Inc. (www.hydraflowpumptech.com) has been authorised as a stocking distributor of Bosch Rexroth Canada's Industrial and Mobile Hydraulic products.

Headquartered in Vaughan, Ontario, Hydraflow-Pumptech can now offer solutions for its customers utilizing the quality, reliability and technical superiority of Bosch Rexroth hydraulic components. Being an Authorised stocking distributor means Hydraflow-Pumptech can combine Rexroth component technology with in-house solutions, design and service skills to give its customers the best possible technical advantage in addressing their application's challenges.

Hydraflow-Pumptech was formed in 2010 from the merger of two strong businesses, Hydraflow Fluid Power, Inc., established in 2002 and Pumptech Hydraulics established in 1994. The combined company has extensive employee experience in both hydraulic sales and service and is setting the new standard in Ontario for exceptional customer service and technical sales and support capabilities.
